

City School District of Albany

PARENT UNIVERSITY
at GIFFEN MEMORIAL
ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Topic: Prekindergarten literacy
What: Receive free books and help prepare your child for kindergarten with fun and exciting reading strategies
When: Tuesday, March 21, 5-7 p.m.
Where: Giffen Memorial Elementary School, 274 S. Pearl St.

Topic: Restorative justice
What: Everyone makes mistakes; learn how to help your child turn them into opportunities for personal growth
When: Saturday, April 1, 10 a.m.-noon
Where: Hackett Middle School, 45 Delaware Ave.

Topic: Literacy at home
What: Tips to keep elementary students of all ages engaged in reading at home
When: Saturday, April 8, 10 a.m.-noon
Where: Giffen Memorial Elementary School, 274 S. Pearl St.

Childcare and a meal will be provided free at all events.**

Parent University is a City School District of Albany initiative designed to help keep parents involved in the education of their children at the middle-school level, and has now been expanded to include more schools courtesy of a My Brother's Keeper Challenge Grant.

For more information, contact Community Engagement Coordinator Cathy Edmondson at 475-6067 or cedmondson@albany.k12.ny.us.