

PARENT UNIVERSITY

at SCHUYLER

ACHIEVEMENT ACADEMY

Topic: Restorative justice

What: Everyone makes mistakes; learn how to help your child turn them into opportunities for personal growth

When: Saturday, March 25, 10 a.m.-noon

Where: Alternative Learning Center, 50 North Lark St.

Topic: Prekindergarten literacy

What: Receive free books and help prepare your child for kindergarten with fun and exciting reading strategies

When: Tuesday, March 28, 5-7 p.m.

Where: Schuyler Achievement Academy, 676 Clinton Ave.

Topic: Literacy at home

What: Tips to keep elementary students of all ages engaged in reading at home

When: Saturday, April 29, 10 a.m.-noon

Where: Schuyler Achievement Academy, 676 Clinton Ave.

Childcare and a meal will be provided free at all events.**

Parent University is a City School District of Albany initiative designed to help keep parents involved in the education of their children at the middle-school level, and has now been expanded to include more schools courtesy of a My Brother's Keeper Challenge Grant.

For more information, contact Community Engagement Coordinator Cathy Edmondson at 475-6067 or cedmondson@albany.k12.ny.us.