

At a glance: Albany High School

With students from 40 countries and rich academic programming, Albany High School's halls, classes and culture reflect the richness of a world-class university setting.

Students: 2,300

Countries represented in student body: 40

Teachers: 265

Total employees: 354

Athletic teams/girls: 25 teams in 11 sports

Athletic teams/boys: 26 teams in 12 sports ⇒ ⇒ ⇒

Clubs: 52

Clubs celebrating diverse cultures represented by student body: 17

Points of distinction:

- Advanced Placement courses: 18; no Capital Region high school offers more:
 - English
 - World History
 - European History
 - American History
 - U.S. Government and Politics
 - Economics
 - Math 12 Level I
 - Math 12 Level II
 - Statistics
 - Biology
 - Chemistry
 - Physics
 - French
 - French Literature
 - Latin
 - Spanish
 - Spanish Literature
 - Music Theory
- Nanotechnology: Believed to be first public school in U.S. to offer an on-campus course
- International Baccalaureate: One of only two high schools in Capital Region offering the prestigious program

Performing Arts:

Drama

Theater Ensemble

Concert Band

Symphonic Band

Wind Ensemble

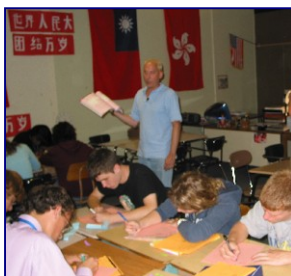

Marching Band ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒ ⇒

Jazz Band

Big Band Music Group

Voice Music

Select Choir

Foreign languages:

French

Latin

⇒ ⇒ ⇒ Mandarin Chinese

Spanish

International speakers who have addressed Albany High student body:

Jesse Jackson

Actor William Devane '57

Grammy-winning alumnus Stephon

U.S. Sen. Hillary Clinton

Harris '91

President Bill Clinton

Actress Charlene Woodard '72

Books available in Media Center: 26,647

Online databases available through Media Center Web site: 12

Hits to the Media Center Web site last year: 21,312

www.ahs.albany.k12.ny.us/AHS/depts/library/index.html

Did you know?: You can check out Albany High's College Center online

www.ahs.albany.k12.ny.us/AHS/depts/guidance/collegecenter.htm