General Information: Spark the interest of students in STEM/Engineering design by forming a team of 10 students (4th and 5th grade BGC after school enrollees) to complete a NASA challenge (plans and materials provided). This opportunity will begin with students in October 2019 and run through January 2020. You must be able to attend a two (2) day summer training in Syracuse – July 11th and 12th. All training costs are covered – hotel, conference, food, mileage – plus you'll be paid for the time during the conference hours. Must be willing to meet with students after school for two (2) hours per week for 12 weeks + additional hours after the fall session is over to put together the final piece for NASA. This is not a shared position.
